IN THE BEE TO-DAY

WEATHER.

The local forecast for to-day is clearing, much colder to-night; cold wave to-night and to-morrow with flurries of snow.

The weather conditions as stated by Obesrver Hagen are as follows: The high area and its cold wave accompaniment is advancing southeastward and is now central in Nebraska and Kansas and will be felt on the gulf. The extremes in the United States this morning were: 26 degrees below at St. Vincent, 22 degrees below at Moorhead, 26 degrees below at Bismarck, 20 degrees below at Huron, 22 degrees below at North Platte, Nebraska. The zero line is at Chicago today and will be at Toledo to-morrow. The same line extends from Marquette to Chicago, westward to Dodge City, and northwest to British America. The temperature in the northwest, however, is rising and about Thursday afternoon we will see warmer weather. The weather is generally clear except in the gulf states and lower Mississippi valley where it is being influenced by a storm which developed in the gulf last night. One inch of rain fell at New Orleans and over an inch and a half at Jacksonville. The cold wave will have a greater effect on the gulf states through the development of this storm. The highest temperature in the United States to-day is 62 degrees at Jacksonville. The highest in Toledo yesterday was 35 degrees, the lowest this morning was 27 degrees. The rainfall last night amounted to .04 inch.

CAME OUT AT LAST.

The Ann Arbor Tragedy of Two Years Ago,

In Which Irving J. Dennison Was Murdered,

Is in a Fair Way to Have Legal Settlement.

The Man Has Been Located in Seattle.

One of the Militiamen is Claimed to Have Talked Too Much and Will be Brought Back to Answer for the Crime He Committed.

Jackson, Jan. 12.—On the night of November 12, 1890, a scrimmage took place at Ann Arbor between several hundred students and a number of the members of Company A, Michigan state troops.

The most serious outcome was the fatal injury of Irving J. Dennison, of Toledo, a student, who was an innocent onlooker. The details of this affair are well known, but all attempts to secure the arrest and punishment of the guilty party have failed, and the matter has been apparently lost sight of.

Now, however, it appears that the case is being worked up, and apparently the evidence very strong. One of the members of Company A, who, by the way, was not one of the many arrested at the time, shortly afterwards left for Seattle, Wash.

Before leaving he, it is said, imbibed too freely on several occasions and talked. One of the men of the company told him on one occasion that if he did not keep quiet he would "squeal." He visited the house of Mate Shafer, and there showed a watch he claimed belonged to Dennison.

This was seen by Mate and a number of the inmates. He also told how he had clubbed Dennison, and that when his victim fell his hand caught Dennison's watch chain, pulling the watch from his pocket. Seeing the watch was a fine gold one he appropriated it.

It is stated that Dr. Vaughan, of the medical faculty, and Charles R. Whitman, railroad commissioner, have been working upon the case. Mr. Whitman was in Jackson last week, and it has been learned that his main object was to confer with Arthur J. Sweet, of the Michigan Central, concerning recent developments.

When Dennison's clothing was removed it was found that his watch chain was broken, and the watch was never recovered.

The members of Company A, it is stated, knew about the facts in the case, but were averse to exposing the guilty party, and had it not been for his own boastfulness he might never have been known.

Mr. Sweet has worked up the evidence, and claims to know where to put his hands on him. A requisition will at once be obtained, and the culprit brought back from Seattle for trial. Two of the women, who will be among the main witnesses, are now residents of Jackson, one of them having since married.

IS IT A HILL BOOM?

Grand Reception to be Tendered the Senator.

The Manhattan Club Will Outdo Itself in Honoring New York's Conspicuous Son.

New York, Jan. 12.—The next great political reception of national interest will be given by the Manhattan club to United States Senator David B. Hill. The invitation was sent to the senator more than a week ago with a request that he should name a date most convenient. He replied, naming Jan. 27th.. It is the intention of the managers of the club to make this the greatest reception that has ever been given by the club.

FREIGHT WRECK.

Providence, R. I., Jan. 12.—The all-rail freight from Providence at 4:40 this morning jumped a frog at East Junction and 11 of the 15 cars left the track with the engine.

The only damage was the tearing up of the rails and the knocking down of some telegraph poles. No one was injured. North and south bound trains were delayed an hour. All others went around.

COMMITTEE ON PATENTS.

Washington, Jan. 12.—The house committee on patents met to-day and discussed the general subject of patent legislation, but as the bills introduced for reference to the committee had not reached its printed form, an adjournment was taken until next Monday, when the committee will resume regular work.

POSTAL REGULATIONS.

Washington, Jan. 12.—Postmaster General Wanamaker's scheme for postal delivery and collection in rural districts is being supported by petitions from various parts of the country, which find their way into the petition box of the house. A large number of them came in this morning.

BIG BLAZE IN ROCHESTER.

Heavy Damage Caused by Flames.

Falling Walls Crush a Church and Add Fuel to the Angry Flames.

Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 12.—At noon to-day a fire broke out on the fifth floor of the eight-story building until recently occupied by Hiran Sibley as a seed store. The upper floors were soon enveloped in flames.

The building is at the rear and adjoins a long row of buildings on Main street, most of which are occupied on the ground floor by commission merchants.

The walls of the Sibley block fell upon and crushed the Second Baptist church, and the church soon took fire.

At 1 o'clock the Sibley building was burned entirely out and the fire in the church was under control. The total loss on both buildings will probably reach $150,000. Mortimer Brennan, of hose company No. 5 fell from a ladder and was badly hurt.

A mistake in sending in the alarm gave rise to the report that the Musee theater was on fire.

COULD NOT FACE THE MUSIC.

An Omaha Dentist Commits Suicide in Chicago.

Chicago, Jan. 12.—Friends of Dr. James Charles, an Omaha dentist, who committed suicide last week in the Brewster hotel in this city, believe he was robbed before he shot himself.

When he was at the hotel the first time he was well dressed, had plenty of money and wore large diamonds and a costly gold watch.

When he reappeared at the hotel, after an absence of a few days, he borrowed a quarter wherewith to send a telegram asking for funds. He was penniless, without jewelry and clad in wretched clothes.

He had intended, he said, to go to Omaha, but had been beaten and robbed in a hotel near the depot. He did not say what hotel nor what depot.

WHALEBACKS FOR WAR.

McDougal Comes Nobly to the Government's Relief.

West Superior, Wis., Jan. 12.—Capt. McDougall, inventor of the whaleback, is figuring on applying the vessel to war service, adapting barges to coast defense.

By means of water ballast they can be submerged, leaving only a small turret for a lookout forward and the bow above water. In the bow two heavy guns will be placed and while one is being fired the other may be charged below in the vessel. Capt. McDougall has taken out patents on the vessel in this and all foreign countries.

WILL AMALGAMATE.

Columbus, O., Jan. 12.—General Organizer J. M. Richardson, of the Farmers' alliance and Industrial union, is authority for the statement that all the arrangements are now made and a basis agreed upon for a consolidation of the open and secret alliances, and that it will soon be effected. This, he says, will make an organization in this state of about 250,000 members.

CABINET CHANGES.

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 12.—Hon. John Haggart, postmaster general, has vacated that office and assumed the portfolio of railways and canals, and Hon. John A. Ouimet, whose call to the cabinet was announced several weeks ago, has been assigned the portfolio of public works. This is the first step toward the promised reconstruction of the ministry.

COMMON LAW MARRIAGE.

It Holds Good in the Eyes of the Court.

A Woman Who Will Gain Control of the Forty Thousand Dollars Left by P. B. Bradley.

St. Louis, Jan. 12.—Sometime ago Patrick B. Bradley, janitor of a tenement house, died, leaving an estate valued at $40,000. No will being found the public administration took charge of the property.

A short time after Bradley's death a woman who claimed to have been the wife of the deceased janitor appeared and claimed the estate. The public administration took up the claims of the woman and found from the records that the couple had been divorced in 1879, but after the divorce she still continued to live with Bradley as his wife, at the request of the deceased.

Her attorneys raised the point that a second marriage of the common law order followed the divorce. Judge Warner yesterday handed down his decision sustaining the claim of Mrs. Bradley.

A BIG STRIKE AHEAD.

Six Big Roads May Soon Be Tied Up.

Telegraphers and Trainmen to Unite to Make Their Point Against the Company.

Laredo, Tex., Jan. 12.—Upon telegraphic information expected here any minute, as to the acceptance or refusal by connecting roads of the Aransas Pass, hangs the question of the tying up of possibly six great southern roads.

During the last 24 hours a number of the Aransas Pass striking telegraphers have reached this point and have held, singly or in pairs, quiet talks with the railroad men of the Mexican National, the International & Great Northern and the Texas Mexican systems, all of which have connections with the Aransas Pass railroad.

The telegraphers are ostensibly on their way to Mexico to obtain positions, but the presumption is that they are here to strengthen the determination of the railroad men in Laredo to strike with the Aransas Pass employes in case the trio of roads mentioned undertake to handle the Aransas Pass company's freight.

Fixing for Trouble.

Laredo, Tex., Jan. 12.—A freight train will leave Alice, Tex., on the Texas Mexican road this morning. An attempt will be made there to put Aransas Pass road freight upon it that is billed to this place. If the men there handle it, or if non-union men take it, the men here will undoubtedly go out.

NEWS FROM THE BORDER.

People Ready to Join Garza's Band.

They Have Everything to Gain and Nothing to Lose, and Will Do Battle with Much Earnestness.

Pueblo, Col., Jan. 12.—A rumor is current on the streets to-day that an effort is being made by a few young Mexican men in Las Animas, Huerfana, and Costilla counties to raise a strong company to join Garza on the Texas frontier and that the plan is being agitated by some of the younger sons of once well-known families.

They argue that they have nothing to lose and everything to gain; that if Garza fails in overthrowing President Diaz, which they claim to believe is almost impossible, they can quietly return to their homes and take up the old life once more, but should he win wealth and power are within their grasp.

Our Scouts.

San Antonio, Tex., Jan. 12.—The scouting operations of the United States troops on the Rio Grande frontier have been attended during the past two days with great hardships owing to the severe norther, accompanied by rain, that has been blowing.

Capt. F. F. Chase, of the Third cavalry, with his troops, is supposed to be in the heart of the revolutionist's stronghold around the Palito Blanco ranch.

No news of any kind has been received from him at military department headquarters here for the past 48 hours. He is supplied with 20 days' rations and an experienced scout.

Porifor P. Garcia, general manager of the affairs of ex-Gov. Gonzales, of Chihuahua, Mex., arrived here last evening. He states that there was no sign of a revolutionary uprising in that state when he left there and that the Garza movement is looked upon as insignificant. The people there, he states, are well satisfied with the administration of Lauro Carrillo, the present governor.

FASSETT OVERRULED.

His Play for Votes Was of No Avail to Him.

Washington, Jan. 12.—The supreme court has decided the Vanderbilt yacht case in a manner favorable to the owner, Mr. Vanderbilt. The right of the federal court to assess the duties on the yacht is sustained, and Collector Fassett's position is overruled.

FOSTORIA NOTES.

Fostoria, Jan. 12.—(Special)—About thirty members of the Company D, and Dr. Robert Hale, A. E. Mergenthaler, Clare Van Blarcum, C M. Berry, and Ed Morgan and others attended the inauguration.

Diphtheria is again prevalent in Sycamore, south of here, and schools have been closed on its account.

KILLED IN A WRECK.

London, Jan. 12.—A runaway engine at Doncaster this morning jumped the rails, ran through the goods sheds and dashed into the work rooms where a number of employes were at the moment breakfasting. One man was killed and several injured.

A BRILLIANT RECEPTION

Tendered to the Governor Last Night.

Hundreds of Hungry Office Seekers.

Rippers to be the Order of the Day, and Even the Judiciary Will Not Escape the Spoils Hunter.

Columbus, Jan. 12.—(Special)—The reception to Governor McKinley last night passed off as nicely as could be expected in the cramped up quarters. Amid a bower of flowers, potted plants, national colors and sweet strains of music the surging mass of humanity struggled for two hours to get hold of the governor's hand.

A detachment of the Pugh Videts and police tried for two hours to keep the people in line. They succeeded fairly well by shutting the doors every few moments. After women, children and gentlemen had shaken the hand of the new governor, his estimable wife, (who by the way is an invalid) sat in a chair by his side and with a bow of the head and at many times a shake of the hand helped to entertain the rushing crowd Although this was a trying time for the governor, it was nothing to what he will have to pass through in furnishing places for the hungry applicants that want office.

Only thirteen hundred hardy sons of republicanism wanted positions under te adjutant general, who had only nineteen places to fill.

A well-known republican and one that is pretty well posted gave it as his belief that nearly three thousand political workers desired to secure places from guards in the penitentiary up to state inspector of oils.

Now that the boss has been inaugurated the legislative machine will commence to grind and everything in sight will go to the republican party, so that it can be in fighting trim for the presidential election.

Judiciary.

The first attack will be made on the judiciary of the state, and it was said last evening by a republican senator that 15 democratic judges would have to return to the practice of law as soon as Senator Nichols could secure the passage of his bill, which is prepared, notwithstanding the fact that he offered a resolution to arrange the districts. After this has been cared for the supreme court will have four additional judges, all to be appointed by the governor.

To Be Ripped Up.

Although Cleveland and Cincinnati have alleged federal plan bills now in force, it is the intention to make them more secure for the republican heelers; in fact, every city in the state is to have a ripper bill passed that will give the republicans everything they want from laborers on the streets to chiefs of police and fire department.

While this is going on attention will be paid to the office of railroad commissioner and commissioner of labor statistics, "Doc" Norton is filling the first named and John McBride the latter, both of whom were legislated into their present positions. It will not do any harm to reorganize.

BLAZE IN MONTREAL.

A Large Academy Wrapped in Flames.

Three Hundred Children and the Nuns Rescued Without Injury—Firemen Injured.

Montreal, Jan. 12.—A big fire is now raging here. Shortly before eleven o'clock this morning fire was discovered in the academy of St. Louis de Gonsaque, a large stone building on Sherbrooke street, near St. Denis street.

The academy is conducted by the Providence nuns and there were over 300 children in the institution. The flames spread with great rapidity and all the lower portion of the building was soon in flames.

The greatest confusion reigned and the nuns had the utmost difficulty to prevent a panic. The firemen succeeded in getting all the nuns and pupils safely out of the building. Several of the firemen were overcome by the smoke and had to be removed to the hospital. The loss will be heavy.

KILLED IN A WRECK.

Woonsocket, R. I., Jan. 12—Telephonic advices from Pawtucket report an engine and 11 cars wrecked and several persons killed at East Junction, Hebronville, Mass., on the Providence division of the Old Colony road and that Boston and Providence trains are using a single track for a part of the distance.

JUDGE PUGSLEY'S RULINGS.

Including the Robison damage case Judge Pugsley made rulings in common pleas court yesterday in the following cases:

Paul Raymond against Quincy M. Britton, action on a note, demurrer to the petition overruled.

Nathan B. Danneburg against Harry W. Ashley, an action to recover damages for maliciously causing the plaintiff to be discharged from the services of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, motion to strike out parts of petition granted in part.

In the case of the Toledo Consolidated Street Railway company against Samuel Jenks, the judgment of the justice of the peace was reversed on the ground that the justice had no jurisdiction.

JOINED THE NATIONAL.

The directors of the Produce Exchange yesterday consented to join the National Board of Trade. This organization has before them for discussion many of the topics most interesting to the people just now. Their next meeting will be at Washington, January 27th. The secretary of the Produce Exchange, Mr. D. B. Smith, will represent that association in the National Board at its next meeting.

END OVER END TO DEATH

A Monon Train's Awful Plunge From a Bridge

Forty Feet Above the Rough and Frozen Ground.

Cars Torn to Pieces and Nearly Every Passenger on the Ill-Fated Train More or Less Injured—A Number Were Killed.

Crawfordsville, Ind., Jan. 12.—Between 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon the north-bound Monon train ran off the track about two miles north of here at Nicholson Crossing.

The accident occurred on the 40-foot embankment down which four cars rolled, the engine and one baggage car keeping the track. The trouble is supposed to be due to a broken rail.

The first passenger coach rolled over three times. It was full of passengers and caught fire from the stove, but all occupants escaped alive.

The baggage and express car went over but no one in it was severely hurt. The ladies' coach was literally torn to pieces, as was also the parlor car. Here was the greatest damage. There was hardly a passenger on the train who escaped injury.

Help was soon at hand and in a few minutes the road was full of the maimed on their way to town. There were three theatrical troupes on board, one of which, the City Club Burlesque company, was completely broken up, nearly every member sustaining serious injuries.

The killed are: Ben Hamburg, Cincinnati, a traveling man; Madame Eine Van Rokey, of the City Club company.

The injured of the City Club company are: Mack Rogers, badly hurt in the legs and back; Gus Rogers, back injured; Stella Clifton, legs and back; Helen Love, internally injured; Cora White, Syracuse, N. Y., slightly injured about the head; Fanny Everett, St. Louis, internally injured; Olla Lewis, bruised about head; Harry C. Bryant, Philadelphia, back sprained and head hurt; Madge Larner, Pittsburg, head bruised; M. C. Rutledge, porter chair car, face slashed; C. N. Cornell, roadmaster, internal injuries; John Winchester, Louisville, baggagemaster, injured about shoulder and back; George Cutter, express messenger, Louisville, internal injuries; William Snyder, newsboy, Chicago, shoulder broken; William Bishop, brakeman, Lafayette, severely burned; John Bills, conductor, hurt internally; Nellie Hanley, crushed, will die; Ezra Hibbs, Wheatfield, left arm broken, right hand cut off; Mrs. Ann Hibbs, Wheatfield, face mashed; Dr. E. Whitesides, spine seriously fractured; Dave Mansbury, Romney, eye gouged out, arm and leg broken; C. H. Cheek, Greencastle, right leg cut off below the knee; —— Fox, New Albany, head cut and leg mashed; Paul N. Allen, head crushed; Thomas Monoco, opera troupe, hurt internally; C. F. Hoyt, side and back and head badly injured; C. W. Loevenden, Salem, leg badly crushed; Eva Marshall, Ellettsville, side and face crushed; J. J. Enwright, Chicago, knee and head injured; Melvin McKee, Chicago, head, hip and back injured but not fatal.

Of this city there were ten injured: John Foust, Wm. Hall, J. H. Davidson, Matt Beatty, Mrs. Breyfogle, Will Smith, Dave Jones, J. F. Sullivan.

A number of those hurt lie here in the city and several will probably die. The excitement has been intense and hundreds have visited the scene of the accident. It was one of the most horrible catastrophes that ever occurred on the road. The postal car went over but Clerks Fox and Clark, while badly cut, are not seriously hurt.

The scenes about the wreck were heart-rending. Rescuers are now searching for the body of a little girl supposed to be buried in the debris.

MAN'S AWFUL INHUMANITY.

A Sad Story From a Michigan Town.

J. P. Andrews Placed His Wife in an Asylum in Order to Elope with a Girl From Florida.

Muskegon, Mich., Jan. 12.—Mrs. J. P. Andrews, who was fraudulently placed in a private insane asylum near Detroit by her husband, who then eloped with Miss McGregor, a wealthy young woman of Jacksonville, Fla., has been released on the demand of her sister, Mrs. G. C. Gilbert, of this city.

Mrs. Andrews is perfectly sane, but is prostrated with grief and humiliation.

She married Andrews here and he has squandered her large fortune, leaving her penniless in a mad house with two small children, the youngest of whom was born in the asylum.

Andrews and Miss McGregor are living in Paris, France.

THE RETALIATORY CLAUSE.

Breckinridge Introduces a Resolution.

He Would Amend the Powers of the President Under the McKinley Act.

Washington, Jan. 12.—That part of the resolution introduced by Mr. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, relating to the retaliatory proclamation of the president of which warning has been given, proposing to repeal the reciprocity clause of the McKinley bill, is as follows:

Be it resolved, That the committee of ways and means be and is hereby instructed to report on or before the 25th of February a bill repealing the third section of the act entitled, "An act to reduce the revenues, equalize duties on imports and for other purposes," approved Oct. 1st, 1890, and enacting in lieu thereof the following, viz:

The president of the United States is hereby authorized without further legislation to declare the ports of the United States free and open to all the products of any nation of the American hemisphere upon which no export duties are imposed, whenever and so long as such nation shall admit to its ports free of all national, provincial (state) municipal and other tax, flour, fruits, cotton seed oil, rice, and other provisions including all articles of food, lumber, furniture, and all articles of wood, agricultural implements, and machinery, mining and mechanical machinery, structural steel and iron, steel rails, locomotives, railway cars and supplies, street cars, refined petroleum or such other products of the United States as may be agreed upon.

MADE AN ASSIGNMENT.

Youngstown, O., Jan. 12.—W. E. Warner, a prominent boot and shoe dealer, this morning made an assignment to Charles R. Truesdale for the benefit of creditors. Mr. Warner was formerly engaged in the delivery business in Cleveland. Dull trade is given as the cause. No statement has been made of the assets and debts.

THEY ARE STILL AT LARGE

Fierce Battle With the Two Wild Beasts

Which Are Roaming Around Ohio.

More Dogs Killed and a Number of Hunters Hurt—Eleven Hundred Men in the Chase.

Liepsic, O., Jan. 12.—(Special)—The hunters were out of camp bright and early yesterday mornin. W. A. Lewis was attacked by the beasts and had a narrow escape from death. He was driving in his buggy when a puma sprang at him from the woods.

Lewis fired several shots from his revolver at one of the beasts, which had kept alongside of the buggy and several times managed to get close enough to Lewis to tear flesh from his legs and arms with its sharp claws.

The firing attracted the attention of other hunters near by, and as soon as possible several men were hastening to the rescue of the imperiled man.

His revolver was empty, and the roads being tough, it was impossible for his team to go much farther. The hounds of Dr. H. L. Kinnaman, of Tiffin, were at hand, and gave battle to the beasts, which drew them away from Lewis, who by this time was a full half mile in advance of the hunters.

The battle between the hounds and the pumas was a fierce one while it lasted, but superior strength of the pumas began to tell, and in less than three minutes the four fine hounds were cut to pieces.

J. H. Arnold, Gus Stechschulte and H. L. Tinkham, who had been following the trail since 4 a. m. with their hounds in leash, came from the woods on the south side of the road about one-quarter of a mile from where the hounds and pumas were fighting, and they at once sent their dogs to the rescue, hoping by this means to hold the pumas until they could get near enough to get a shot at them with their Winchesters, but before they could get close enough their hounds had followed in the wake of the others, and the beasts sprang into the brush, leaving the snow covered with blood for a distance of several rods.

The beasts got away and were not again seen until J. K. Baughman, who was on the extreme right, while making his way through a dense growth of underbrush, was suddenly brought face to face with the larger of the two beasts, and, being at such close quarters, used his gun as a club, and, as the huge beast sprang upon him, dealt the beast a heavy blow over the neck, breaking the stock of his gun, but checking the onslaught of the puma for a second.

When the beast again sprang at him, knocking him down and sinking his fangs deep into his shoulder, Baughman used his gun-barrel the best he could and managed to strike the puma several heavy blows, but to no avail. The cries of the doomed man brought to his rescue Charles Williams, of Findlay, and Jess Swaney, of this city, who happened to be in hearing distance, and ran to his assistance.

Both clubbed their guns and made an attack on the beast, who at once released his hold on Baughman and sprang at the rescuers who were both knocked down, but were kept from being bitten by the attacks of the hounds which were on the trail, and came up in time to have a bite and receive several.

The puma sprang away, but not at as rapid a gait, having undoubtedly been hit hard by the men who fought it hand-to-hand.

Baughman was brought to this city by S. W. Roberts and Felix Coonrad, who both had been on the trail since Saturday morning, and both had lost valuable hounds. Baughman is in a precarious condition, and his escape from instant death is considered a miracle.

The pumas again joined company about a mile from where Baughman was hurt, and continued to run towards the swamp. They got into the large deadening of J. H. Dazey and were lost to their pursuers for hours, their trail being lost at the creek, which is not frozen.

There are now over 1,100 men in the chase, several Toledo parties having joined the hunters.

NEW CATHOLIC SOCIETY.

Next Sunday afternoon a public meeting will be held at Friendship hall, corner of Summit and Jefferson streets, at 2:30 o'clock in the interests of the recently organized Catholic society known as the Catholic Knights of Ohio. Jos. J. Pater, state president, Robert Allstaetter, J. F. Neilan of Hamilton, O., and others will address the meeting. John C. Phelan, of Toledo, is state treasurer of the society.

The Catholic Knights of Ohio is a benefit organization confining its operations exclusively to this state. It will include a uniform rank, uniform system of initiation and dress and encampments. When organized, but two months ago, the membership was 600, and it is expected that at the annual meeting at Defiance 2,000 members will be represented.

BOUND OVER FOR BURGLARY.

Allen Green, the colored bigamist, preacher and smoke-house burglar, had a preliminary hearing in police court yesterday afternoon on two charges of burglary. He was accused of going through two smoke-houses and stealing a quantity of meat therefrom. The evidence went sadly against the accused, some most damaging statements coming from one of his alleged wives.

Green played injured innocence and even raised a disturbance in the court room, but was bound over to the common pleas court with bail fixed at $500 in each case.

GUN CLUB ELECTION.

The annual election of officers of the Hirssig Gun club will be held to-night. There is considerable rivalry among the members for the positions of honor, but in all probability the balloting slate will be successful: C. C. Hirssig, president; Ed. Unbehaum, vice-president; F. C. Smith, treasurer; J. H. Wittman, secretary.

A Man Well-known to the Theatrical Profession Tells His Story.

The following story is told by N. Helmer of Helmer & Lietz, wigmakers, No. 125 Fourth Avenue, New York. "I have had a combination of catarrh and bronchitis from my early infancy. Two years ago the symptoms became greatly aggravated, and I was afraid of running into consumption. Have tried inhalations, douches and medicines numerous, but none with as marked success as Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, coupled with the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery (for the Bronchitis and the blood). Having used two bottles of the 'Catarrh Remedy' and a like amount of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' I find myself a well man."

Dr. Sage's Remedy has proved a cure for 99 out of 1[illegible] cases of Catarrh in the Head, and its makers can afford to take the risk of your being the one hundredth.

The only question is—are you willing to make the test, if the makers are willing to take the risk?

If so, the rest is easy. You pay your druggist 50 cents and the trial begins.

If you're wanting the $500 you'll get something better—a cure!

GIRLS ON A STRIKE.

Sixty-two Employes of Roth & Friedman Go Out this Morning.

This morning 62 girls employed in the Lamb Machine department at Roth & Friedman's, manufacturers of knit goods, on St. Clair street, went out on a strike in consequence of a reduction in their wages.

"They have cut us down from $1.25 to 60 and 70 cents per day, and we can't possibly work and live at that rate.

"We at one time received from $1.75 to $2.00 a day in this department, but the cutting down process has brought us to the present low wages.

"We are confident that we earn more than the pittance the firm would allow us."

Mr. Friedman's View.

Mr. Friedman says there was no cause which warranted the girls in taking the action they did. He also says that the price of labor is governed by the market price of the goods, and that while prices have been cut in the east he had not cut them on anything except one or two articles, the price of which he reduced, for the first time in seven years, one cent a dozen.

Mr. Friedman says he put his employes on new styles, and that they objected to the price of wages, claiming it was too low. Mr. Friedman says he told the girls to go back to work, and at the end of the week he would make an adjustment which would be fair. This most of the girls accepted, but some went out on a strike.

LOCAL RAILROADS.

A Coal Road Over an Old W. & L. E. Survey.

The Ice Crop—Clover Leaf Increase—Other Matters of Interest to Toledoans.

The coal operators in the Tuscarawas Valley have decided to build a railroad from Justus, the junction of the Cleveland, Canton, & Southern and Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling roads up the Pigeon Run Valley, over the original but abandoned survey of the Wheeling & Lake Erie road, through East Greenville and on to Dalton on the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad. The road is made a necessity to develop the coal territory through which it is to run. The distance is about 11 miles and it is estimated that the road will cost $40,000 to have it ready for trains. In order to secure a charter it will be required that at least one passenger train must be run each way daily. The right of way is now being secured.

Cutting Ice.

This weather is making ice. A good article nine inches thick is being cut on the Toledo, Ann Arbor & North Michigan road at Hamburgh, and it will soon be thick enough to cut on the line of the Cincinnati, Jackson & Mackinaw railroad.

Starting in Well.

The earnings of the Toledo, St. Louis & Kansas City railroad for the first week in January, 1892, amounted to $33,056. The earnings for the same week last year were $26,572. This shows an increase for the present year of $6,484. The Clover Leaf starts in well.

Sued by Discharged Railroad Men.

Otis Obenchain and Henry Crall, firemen discharged by the Toledo & Ohio Central, have commenced suit against the company. Both allege that they were employed as firemen for said company and that on the 21st of last month were discharged; that they demanded reasons for their discharge and that the company refused to give them. The cases are based upon a law passed April 2, 1890, making it the duty of railway companies to give reasons, when demanded, for discharging employes. Both ask for a judgment against the company in sums not less than $200. The cases will be heard on the 13th of this month, and owing to the rarity of such proceedings they will be watched with much interest. What defense the company will make is not known.

Good Men Go Up.

The heavy run of freight on the Lake Shore has necessitated the promotion of a number of men. Messrs. M. Burke, J. A. Kong, W. J. Schmidt, M. Connors and J. J. Enright have been made conductors, and Firemen H. Brooks, B. Stevens, Chas. Ames, C. C. Fisk, Andrew Long and Chas. Nye have been made engineers.

A Ten-Wheeler.

The Pennsylvania company is designing a 10-wheel engine which will be known as class "X." The standard passenger engine now is known as class "O," and it has given satisfactory service, both in speed and power. However, the large trains which are handled on the western lines require heavier engines, and the new type is being designed to meet the demands both of the present and the future. The new engines will have 19x24 inch cylinders and boiler 62 inches in diameter. The drivers will be 68 inches high, which will insure speed. The most important thing, however, to be gained is power. The heavy grades on the line between Dennison and Pittsburg are very difficult to climb and with large trains the best engines frequently stall. The new engines will be monsters, weighing 120,000 pounds. The class "O" engines, now the standard, weigh between 90,000 and 100,000 pounds. The proposed class "X" is being designed at the Fort Wayne shops and will combine many improvements and suggestions from all shops of the company.

AT WORK WITH A TEAM.

Toledo lodge, K. P., has formed a team for the conferring of the ranks, and anticipates much benefit from the same. Mr. Charles B. Bargman has been chosen captain, and he has entered into the work with a spirit which betokens success. The members drilled for a short time last night, and will assemble at 7 o'clock next Monday night for further practice.

The regular officers of the lodge were installed last evening for the ensuing term by Deputy Samuel Emery, assisted by Mr. Charles E. Chittenden as prelate and Mr. Fred Harper as master at arms. The ensuing year is expected to be one of prosperity.

BONDS DIDN'T SELL.

The ways and means committee met last evening for the purpose of selling several lots of improvement bonds, but as no purchasers presented themselves the bonds were not sold.

Harbor Master Skeldon again called the committee's attention to the dangerous condition of the St. Clair street bridge and he was authorized to expend $400 in making repairs.

CLUBS AND SOCIETIES.

The Central Congregational Working Band

Elects Officers—Rev. Mr. Bliss and the T. S. E. I.—"Little Charley" and the Day Nursery—Announcements.

The Working Band of the Central Congregational church met yesterday afternoon in the church parlors, and the annual election was held, resulting as follows: President, Mrs. H. M. Bacon; vice president, Mrs. Chas. Brigham; secretary, Mrs. Robert Whittlesey; treasurer, Mrs. W. S. Thurstin; executive committee, the president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and Mrs. E. C. Shaw, Mrs. Geo. Brown, Mrs. Wm. A. Towers. Chairman of committee on work, Mrs. Brown. Chairman of social committee, Mrs. Seth Cuddeback.

For several weeks the time of the working band, which meets in the church parlor every Monday afternoon at 2:30, will be given to charity work. If any hospital or other city institution needs plain sewing, quilting, or such work done, and will communicate with the president or secretary of the working band, the society will gladly undertake the work.

The president of the Toledo Society of Economic Inquiry is in receipt of a letter from Rev. W. D. P. Bliss, who is speaking in Cincinnati this week, announcing that the subject of his lecture to be given in this city next Monday evening is, "Work and Wages, a Study of Facts." The lecture will be given in Memorial Hall annex, under the auspices of the T. S. E. I. and will be free. Every one who has an idea there is something wrong with our economic conditions is invited to attend, and those who think things are all right are specially invited.

The Day Nursery circle, which meets next Saturday afternoon, will receive a proposition to take into the nursery the little waif known to the infirmary directors and other humane people as "Little Charley." This is the little cripple for whom the infirmary directors have cared at the farm for over five years, and who is now, so far as can be ascertained, about 11 years old. He is perfectly helpless, from spinal trouble brought on by want of proper care when he was an infant; is fatherless and motherless. The little fellow is of bright mind and sweet disposition, and Superintendent Kirkby has suggested that he be now handed over to the care of women, and removed from the farm to some place where his mind can be trained. The child can have no schooling where he is. Whether the Day Nursery circle can properly undertake the work is for the members to consider. For this reason, and because other important matters will come up, a full attendance of the circle at the next meeting is desired.

Great interest is felt in the subject to be discussed at the next meeting of the Colloquial club, on Friday afternoon this week. The essayist is Mrs. Rachel Godfrey, and her subject "The American Mother; Her Duty to Herself and to Others."

The Theosophical society meets with Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wheeler, 222 Seventeenth street, Thursday evening. Any one interested in the study of the occult is welcomed at these meetings.

The postponed meeting of the Toledo Humane society will be held one week from to-night.

The monthly meeting of the Isabella circle will be held one week from to-day, with Mrs. E. C. Shaw, 2038 Parkwood avenue. Paper by Miss Nolen.

GRIP DEATHS.

Other venerable citizens are lying at the point of death, and much uneasiness prevails throughout the county. Judge George E. Seney is ill with the same epidemic, but not seriously.

PRISONERS ESCAPE.

Tiffin, O., Jan. 12.—(Special)—While workmen were placing electric lights in the jail building yesterday evening, two prisoners, D. G. Ball, Jr., and Alonzo Lyberger, found a door conveniently open and made a well-timed dash for freedom. Ball, who is in for burglary, was caught at the depot in the act of hiding on a freight train. Lyberger is still at large, but as he is charged with stealing a watch on very flimsy grounds, it is not likely that a very large reward will be offered for his return.

IMPOSSIBLE

BEFORE THE INNOVATION MADE BY DR. COPELAND AND HIS ASSOCIATES

For People in Ordinary Circumstances to Obtain the Aid of Skillful Specialists—The Evidence of the Skill of Dr. Copeland and Associates by No Means Confined to Toledo—Notable Statements From Notable People Out of Town.

Until the innovation made by Dr. Copeland and associates in placing medical skill and thorough and scientific treatment for all diseases within the reach of all by a system of low and uniform prices, it was almost impossible for people in moderate circumstances to obtain the aid of skillful and conscientious specialists. The fact that in spite of their well-established and fairly earned reputation for honest work, skillful treatment and successful results, they still maintain their low and uniform charges, shows that they aim not alone at financial success as practitioners, but as well at the accomplishment of the greatest possible amount of good in the community.

We have heard in the past, and still hear for that matter, many complaints over the exhorbitant fees charged by persons claiming to be specialists in throat and lung troubles. It is not only true that Dr. Copeland and his associates charge the low and uniform fee of but that a cure under their system of treatment is more certain and more rapidly obtained than under any other known method, and what is better still, their results are permanent, as shown by continual reference to cases printed years ago and reaffirmed by the patients speaking to-day.

$5.00 a Month for Medicines and Treatment,

Skill and success in the practice of medicine and surgery can no longer be estimated by the size of the fees, when specialists having the largest practice and the highest and best reputation for honest, skillful and successful work, place their fees so low as to be within the reach of all classes and conditions of people.

Under such conditions it is plainly the skillful and faithful work of these specialists in the first place that causes their pronounced prosperity and success. Others may in some measure try to follow their lines of work, but the Superior education, training and experience which has given them their acknowledged mastery over the diseases in their specialties, and makes it possible for them to carry on their practice permanently and successfully at such rates.

You cannot advertise a man into a specialist. Training, complete experience and skill must come first; and then your advertising will have the merit of genuineness and truthfulness, and will succeed. This is the secret of the whole matter. This is the secret of the failure of so many.

They are advertisers first; specialists afterward. The order must be reversed; specialists first, qualified by a regular medical education, and by special study, training and experience, then advertisers. There is no other way to secure permanence, public confidence and success, and those who try any other way will fail. Poorly or partially trained men may, by specious, untruthful advertising or representations, and by charging large fees for a short time deceive the public and make money, but it is only a question of time when the offense is discovered, and universal contempt is their reward. Genuine skill, genuine experience, permanent location, skillful and successful treatment, low and uniform fees; this to-day is the only pathway by which the specialist may obtain success and public confidence.

The evidence of the superior skill of Dr. Copeland and his associates, and of the remarkable and successful results which their system of treatment brings, is not, by any means, confined to this city; it comes from all parts of the country. Never in the history of advertising has there been such an array of testimony. The evidence is not from obscure or unknown sources. It comes from people, many of whom are not only well known in their own cities, but throughout the country, from clergymen, lawyers, professional men of every class, from business men of national reputation; from artists, and even from physicians, the most skeptical and one would think the least willing to lend their testimony. The following short statements represent some of the evidence of the class above referred to. These statements, in their original publication, are, in every case, accompanied by the portrait of the person speaking, or by a fac simile of their signature:

HON. R. W. DUNN, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF FRANKLIN, PA., writes: "My father died from catarrhal complications. I had been coughing, aching and been converted into a catarrhal nuisance for 10 or 15 years, but was not prepared to learn, till I began treatment with you, that I had catarrh with the grip of a vise, chronic in form, and had attained to the dignity of incipient consumption. I now see what was meant by the night sweats, pain over the eyes, dizzy images dancing betimes before my eyes, a cough which for the past year or more has played havoc with my dreams at night and my professional duties in the day. I got so thin that they talked of using me for a skeleton at initiations. I began treatment with you, and I just cannot draw a comparison between how I am now and what I was when I began. I sleep well, cannot get enough to eat, feel years younger, and pursue my professional duties with pleasure. I owe it to you. I do not know what other physicians can do, but I do know that I can recommend you in the treatment of seriously chronic catarrh."

JAMES J. RAFTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, 119 NORTH THIRD ST., EAST ST. LOUIS, writes: "For the past three years I have suffered from a catarrhal trouble which the best doctors and a trip to the Springs failed utterly to relieve. Under treatment with Dr. Copeland and associates I improved rapidly, not only as to my catarrhal trouble, but also in general health. As courteous gentlemen and skillful physicians I can heartily recommend them."

REV. J. W. ASHWOOD, PASTOR GRAND AVE. U. P. CHURCH, 3634 FOREST PARK BOULEVARD, ST. LOUIS, MO., writes: "While suffering from a severe throat trouble caused by exposure and aggravated by public speaking I made application to Dr. Copeland and associates for treatment, and I take pleasure in letting others know that I am now able to do all my regular work without difficulty or annoyance."

REV. M. CLARK, 3960 DREXEL BOULEVARD, CHICAGO, ILL., writes: "I have been treated by Dr. Copeland and associates, and desire to say that they have afforded me more substantial relief in a few weeks than I have received from other doctors in years; and I have had the best. I am glad to recommend them to my friends."

SAMUEL STEIN, 127 FRANKLIN ST., ROCHESTER, N. Y., President of the National Casket Manufacturing Company, under whose personal direction the caskets for the late presidents, Grant and Garfield, were made, writes: "I have had a throat trouble for many years, caused by catarrh of the nose and throat. Everything I had tried failed to give any permanent relief. Since using the treatment of Dr. Copeland and associates my condition has improved, and I am well satisfied with the result. I believe these gentlemen to be competent, reliable and skillful specialists, and commend them to the favorable consideration of the public."

F. ERNEST CRAMER, OF THE CRAMER DRY PLATE COMPANY, ST. LOUIS, writes to Dr. Copeland and associates: "My object in writing these lines is to express my gratitude and complete satisfaction at the successful and intelligent manner in which you are treating my catarrhal trouble. You are perfectly welcome to any use you may desire to make of this letter, and I only hope it may be of some benefit to you and the public."

ALFRED LEE, TREASURER A. F. SHAPLEIGH HARDWARE COMPANY, 519 N. MAIN ST., ST. LOUIS, MO., writes: "I am under treatment with Dr. Copeland and associates, and am satisfied with the intelligent manner in which they handle my case."

REV. J. W. MITCHELL, PASTOR TAYLOR ST. M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH NEWPORT, KY., writes: "I have been treated by Dr. Copeland and associates for catarrh, and, without solicitation from them or any-one else, I desire to say that they have afforded me more substantial relief in two months than I have received from any other physicians in twenty years. I most cordially indorse and recommend them to my friends as pre-eminent in the treatment of catarrh."

REV. T. W. WILLIAMSON, PASTOR M. E. CHURCH, MT. ORAB, OHIO, writes: "I have been troubled with catarrh for many years. I had given up all hopes of ever being restored to health; but after seeing Rev. Dr. Mitchell's statement, with others that I knew to be reliable, concerning the wonderful cures effected by Dr. Copeland and associates, I concluded to try once more, and after less than one month's treatment I found that I was so greatly relieved that I felt altogether like a different person. And it is due Dr. Copeland and associates that I should say to the public that I believe they are all they claim to be in the treatment of catarrh."

REV. G. M. HODGEMAN, 29 ROWLEY ST., ROCHESTER, N. Y., writes: "Having tried the treatment of Dr. Copeland and associates for catarrhal throat trouble, and received benefit therefrom, I take pleasure in adding my testimony to the value of their methods in treating catarrhal troubles. As skillful, reliable and courteous gentlemen, I can heartily recommend them to my friends and to the favorable consideration of the public."

DR. C. C. BRADBURY, 1208 WASHINGTON AVE., ST. LOUIS, MO., writes: "When I first took the treatment of Dr. Copeland and associates my appetite was so poor I could not eat enough to keep my strength up. My nights were sleepless. Under their treatment I gained seven pounds in four weeks. I eat well and sleep soundly now. I most cordially and fully indorse and recommend them to my friends as skillful and successful physicians."

MISS MARIE DRESSLER, COMMEDIENNE OF THE BAKER OPERA COMPANY, NOW ON THE NEW ENGLAND CIRCUIT, writes: "I had catarrh which had affected my general health. I had tried a number of physicians and many remedies without any help until I tried Dr. Copeland and associates' treatment. The catarrh is entirely gone now, and I am as well as ever I was. I think people who are dependent upon the use of their voice and who suffer from throat troubles should know where they can get cured. That is why I make this statement."

MISS C. A. SAFFIN, 282 WEST NINTH ST., CINCINNATI, a daughter of the late Judge Saffin, and sister to the present judge of the probate court, of Columbus, Ohio, after suffering for twelve years from catarrh, says: "I tried many remedies and physicians but failed to derive any benefit from them. Under Dr. Copeland and associates' treatment I have steadily improved. I now go out and could in the summer when under their treatment. My nervousness has passed away, the severe headaches have ceased. I am troubled no more with catarrh, and feel a relief from pain that I have not known before for years. I can conscientiously recommend these doctors. They have done for me what other physicians failed to do."

SUPERINTENDENT HOWE, OF THE NEWPORT FERRY COMPANY, NEWPORT, KY., writes: "The symptoms of my catarrhal trouble are gone. I am all right now. I am very grateful to Dr. Copeland and associates."

NO MONEY IN IT.

Daugherty, of Fayette, Rises in the House

And Denies the Charges of Bribery.

He Asks for an Investigation at Once.

Republican Tales Told Out of School.

The Representative Says He Never Promised to Vote for Foraker and That He Has Not Seen a $500 Bill in Fifteen Years.

Columbus, Jan. 12.—(Special)—After the house was called to order this morning, and the journal was read, Daugherty, of Fayette, secured the floor for the purpose of replying to charges that he had received money for voting for John Sherman.

The papers have been charging that marked five hundred dollar bills had been traced to him and that the total sum received was thirty-five hundred dollars, fifteen hundred dollars less than the sum agreed upon.

To this charge he replied that it was false, and that under no circumstances did he promise to vote for Foraker.

On the contrary the county convention that nominated him called for the return of John Sherman.

"I never promised anything," said he, "neither did I receive one cent, more or less, for my vote, and I have not seen a $500 bill in 15 years."

He also said that he was willing the house should act as it saw fit in this matter.

If a thorough investigation was made he wanted it to be as searching as possible, for if he had done as charged he was a criminal and not fit to associate with honest men, to say nothing of his being a member of the house.

No action has been taken in the matter yet.

The Joan of Arc assembly will meet in Clark's hadd on Friday evening and install new officers, receive reports on last year's work, etc. On the last Friday of this month they will give a dance for the first time in their new quarters, which is sure to be welcome news to the many who enjoy the entertainments of this society.

TOLEDO, OHIO, JANUARY 12, 1892.

The entire state wishes Gov. McKinley a pleasant and prosperous administration.

Call out the militia. Somebody stole Col. Bonner's sword during the inauguration ceremonies yesterday.

Before forecasting the selection of delegates to the national republican convention it might be well to know what counties will be joined to Lucas in a congressional district.

A rantankerous republican member of the Ohio house has introduced a resolution of inquiry about Col. Brice's seat in the United States senate. The more he investigates the more he will find both the seat and the Colonel are in prime condition, good for full six years.

Congressman Whiting of Michigan is largely interested in the salt business, yet he freely declares that the present tariff is oppressive and unnecessary. The fact is daily gaining recognition that the salt trusts and lumber trusts and other combines to regulate prices and output are dependent on the tariff.

The year keeps up the record for railway accidents, and the inconsequential manner in which causes are discussed shows how hardened the public conscience is becoming through frequency of such occurrences. It "is thought" that the terrible accident to the Monon train yesterday was caused by a broken rail.

Congressman Breckenridge of Kentucky is one of the men in the house who says the right thing at the right time and says it well. The resolution offered by him yesterday, relative to the constitutionality of the extraordinary powers conferred on the president by the third section of the McKinley tariff law, is timely and well-considered. Mr. Breckenridge, in common with a large body of citizens of all parties, believes that the president has no constitutional right to levy taxes, to make and unmake commercial regulations without congressional action. And before he shall be called upon to exercise this prerogative, is the time to debate the question.

A number of exchanges, reviewing Mr. Cleveland's address before the New York Business Men's Association, by coincidence or original intent, refer to the easy and happy manner in which the ex-president creates aphorisms that are worthy to be shrined in remembrance. Among those quoted are:

"Party faithlessness is party dishonor."

"Let us not fall under the condemnation which waits on shifty schemes and insincere professions."

"Cowardice is often called conservatism."

"I believe our countrymen are prepared to act on principle, and are in no mood for political maneuvering. They will not waste time in studying conundrums, guessing riddles or trying to interpret doubtful phrases. They demand a plain and simple statement of political purpose."

"If, inspired by the true Jacksonian spirit, we hold to the doctrine that party honesty is party duty and party courage is party expediency, we shall win."

"It is a condition and not a theory that confronts us," and "Public office is a public trust," have already passed into history.

During the year just closed the revenue to the government from imported painting and statuary amounted to only $250,000, so the duty is virtually a prohibitory one. The quarters of the American students in Paris, Florence, Rome and other art centers of Europe, men and women who become alienated from their own country through enforced study and residence abroad, is another phase of the question to consider. The money they spend in foreign lands would make a wonderful showing beside the figures named. Kate Field is making a good campaign against the stupid measure, but argument tells very little. It is part and portion of that darling McKinley bill and if one little peg is pulled out another one may be, with as good reason and the whole sham concern is liable to tumble. And just so sure as the sun shines that is to be the fate of it and possibly in the fashion foreshadowed. Mr. Blaine's free-trade lean-to is all the brace it has, and that must be battened too often to be anything permanent. Let the pulling down begin with art and the crusade be led by a woman; it matters not.

THE FARMER IN POLITICS.

The republican party has been greatly plagued by the grumbling farmers. So long as they bore their unjust burden of taxation without murmur, all was lovely, but when the straw that threatened to break the camel's back was placed, the protest became too formidable to be quieted by the amiable sophistries of the olden time. Bounteous providence came to the rescue and the McKinley bill put a tax on eggs, onions, dried apples and bladders, and the chorus for the farmers (not by them) concerning their happy condition and wonderful prosperity was raised by the organs and passed along the line. But, somehow, the aroused distrust and the spirit of investigation refuses to down at the word of the old masters. An organ said recently, "the Alliance will not bother the republicans of Nebraska any more." The great aim and worry seems to be to get the farmers quiet. With them it isn't a matter of justice in legislation at all, and slowly this condition of things is coming to the senses of the burden-bearing class.

The state presidents of the Alliance in session in Washington last week, in their discussion of matters pertaining to the welfare of the organization, showed conclusively an understanding of the system of discrimination against them and their interests. The officers prepared a memorial, calling attention to the depression in all departments of agricultural industry. Despite the bounty of nature and the faithfulness of the laborer, farms are constantly decreasing in valuation and the farmer is at the bottom of the heap. They diagnose the condition of the patient correctly, as also causes for such condition, when they attribute the evils which are upon them to "inequalities in the governmental policy, the legitimate outgrowth of partial and unfriendly legislation," but when they come to prescribe for the difficulty they are prone to ask for themselves governmental aid and favoritism as a means of getting even. What is needed is that the farmers rise to the atmosphere of "eternal justice" in considering present economic conditions. They have themselves to thank that they have been blind and deaf so long to the trend of legislation. They have gotten what they voted for, and now that they see results in the true light, they should be courageous enough to demand, at this late day, justice for all and favors for none. That is the rock on which to build for the future. Not to ask a loan of money from the people's treasury for the payment of interest and mortgage money, but to insist upon and vote for legislation that will remove the unfair discrimination against their industry and give them an equal chance in the race for an honest living.

The continued agitation is a good omen. One year of big crops and a bit of attention in the new tax bill is not sufficient to cover the ugly places; the insight has become too penetrating, the wound has struck too deep.

The resolution adopted by the assembled presidents at the capital shows the right spirit and good judgment, the gist of which is that the Alliances and Unions which shall attend the industrial conference in St. Louis next month take every measure to promote fraternal relations with all labor organizations there represented. They realize that in union is strength.

Gath's Greatness.

"Gath" says he was told by "Thompson, the central druggist," it was apoplexy that was the matter with Mr. Blaine. "Gath" is a great newsgatherer, as well as a great liar.—Wheeling Register.

So It Seems.

UNIVERSITY EXTENSION COURSE.

Prof. Henry C. Adams, of Ann Arbor University, sends to the University Extension class, forming in Toledo, an outline of the lectures on social and industrial problems, which will be given in the initial series. The first of these is to be delivered Friday evening next. The topic is "The Industrial Revolution of the 18th Century," which includes the introduction of the factory system in place of the domestic system of production, with descriptions and comparisons; the liberation of labor and development of property; the theory of control by competition; a definition of "the 19th Century Worker" and of the labor problem.

The second lecture takes up the social and industrial results of steam navigation. Facts pertaining to steam transportation, the extent of railways throughout the world; facts pertaining to speed and safety (a topic that will bear searching study at this opportune moment); facts pertaining to "the perfect market;" the monopoly problem defined.

The third will treat of Changes in Political Economy including a study of John Stuart Mill's exposition; of Adam Smith and Ricardo. The fourth, of Political Economy since Mill, of the term "wealth;" of productive labor, the view of English economists and a consideration of the changes involved.

Lecture five considers Trades Unions, their origin and codes of laws at different dates, their relation to the wage question and their probable mission. Lecture six investigates the monopoly problem in its early guises and the finished product of the Nineteenth century, the social and moral tendencies of monopolies.

This is simply an outline of topics, from which the elaboration of them may be suggested. What their treatment will be at the hands of one so richly equipped as Prof. Adams may be readily imagined. The Bee prophesies that the organization of such a society in Toledo will be attended with splendid results. The subjects to be discussed are the live issues of the day and the opportunity to study them under so favorable auspices is something no man or woman can afford to miss. The price of a ticket for a course of six weeks is only one dollar—single admission 25 cents. Tickets may be had at the store of Brown, Eager & Hull. Let the friends of education in Toledo take vigorous hold of this matter.

ANNUAL MEETING

Of the Toledo and Lake Erie Boating and Fishing Club Last Evening.

Last evening the Toledo and Lake Erie Boating and Fishing club held its annual meeting. There was a good attendance of the local membership.

The following new members were elected: Chas. W. Hayes, on resignation of George Milnine; W. J. Chase, on resignation of J. S. Barker; A. L. Spitzer, on resignation of T. E. LeBaron; Walter E. Mock, on resignation of W. Shoemaker, jr., deceased; and J. F. Bloomer, of Cincinnati, on resignation of A. H. McLeod.

J. W. Cummings, J. K. Hamilton and D. R. Austin were appointed a committee to draft resolutions on the resignation of M. Shoemaker, which they did as follows:

Whereas, The members of this association at its annual meeting have learned with regret that Matthew Shoemaker, esq., has resigned as a member of the board of trustees, and declines, on account of ill health, longer to serve as president of the association;

Whereas, Mr. Shoemaker, from its foundation, has been the president, and always unceasingly active and wise in looking after the interests and administering the affairs of the club. To that zeal, interest and wise administration the enjoyment and pleasure the members have received and the splendid success and prosperity of the association is largely due; therefore,

Resolved, That in parting with Mr. Shoemaker as trustee and president of this association we desire to place on record our appreciation of his efforts and labors for the club and our thanks for all he has done in its behalf, and express our wish that he may long continue to enjoy with us all the comforts and benefits of Middle Bass, and may have yet many long years of honor and prosperity.

It was decided not to extend the dock at present. The proposed change in section 12 of the by-laws was defeated. The annual assessment was made $20. The treasurer reported a balance on hand of $13.54.

Calvin Cone, W. O. Parker and Robert Cummings were re-elected trustees for three years, and J. Ewing Miller, of Columbus, was elected to succeed Mr. Shoemaker, whose term had not expired. The secretary was instructed to issue printed lists of the members and the treasurer's report.

RETIRING ORDERS.

Washington, Jan. 12.—Mr. Cummings to-day introduced a bill to authorize the retirement of mates in the navy and fixing their pay for active service as follows: At sea, $1,200; on shore, $900; waiting orders, $700.

Congressman Springer's wife is described as a charming little woman, as lively as a cricket, devoted to her home and the interests of her husband. She has written more or less for publication, though she is not a blue-stocking.

An old school friend of Prof. Tyndall says that in his boyhood days the great scientist used to "walk home with teacher" after school and amuse while sometimes puzzling the pedagogue by demonstrating problems in Euclid in the snow.

Since 1876 Mrs. William H. Crane has been the treasurer of her husband's theatrical company. She handles from $40,000 to $60,000 per month during the season, and attends personally to such details as collecting and paying bills, banking, paying salaries, and all similar business.

DANGER SIGNALS.

The president and his makers, Dudley and Quay, are hanging out danger signals for the Republic.

What for?

Not that a grasping plutocracy, booted and spurred, is recklessly riding the great American democracy.

Nor that Labor is in a state of unrest—scarcely able in the midst of the most abundant crops to keep the wolf from the door.

Nor that our people are ground down by a burden of taxation, local, state and national, without example in history.

Nor that our finances are stumbling along on two legs, one a foot longer than the other.

Nor that our government with a revenue that would delight the heart of the autocrat of all the Russias, with his millions of soldiers, is unable to make the two ends even appear to meet without legerdemain in bookkeeping, that would disgrace any bank or business firm.

Nor that bribery at elections has become so bold and unblushing that a judge who will use the bench to screen it, is considered a subject for promotion.

Oh! no; none of these or of the many other causes that are sapping the foundations of our institutions.

The president has discovered that up in our quiet neighbor, Michigan, the rascally democrats have gerrymandered the state so as to give them an unfair advantage in the election of congressmen, and instead of allowing a few "blocks of five" purchased in the slums of Detroit to control the whole state, they have actually provided that each district shall elect its own elector as well as its congressman.

To this matter, committed by the express language of the constitution to the legislature of each state, so that the national government has nothing more to do with it than with the election of a constable in Kalamazoo, and so committed for the avowed purpose of depriving the administration in power of all control over the succession, the president devotes near two columns of his annual message.

Why, bless his innocent soul! Does he not know that ever since the inventive Gerry discovered the Salamander and shoe string mode of constituting congressional districts for party advantage, both parties have used the invention and nowhere more unscrupulously than in his own state and under the very dropping of his staid Presbyterian sanctuary, and that his own party in the legislature of Ohio has under consideration a gerrymander that beats all precedents for picturesqueness and unfairness? Mr. President, calm your purturbed spirits. This is no Sunday school, but a wicked world you have got into, and the rascally politicians in all times and in all countries have taken all possible advantages, even to the extent of sometimes stealing a presidency.

But just now those "truly Christian young men," Quay and Dudley, have had a meeting at Pittsburg (Wanamaker was probably kept away by his Sunday school), and have discovered a more serious danger.

They have found a lion in their path, and have unanimously resolved that Gov. Hill is not only a great but a dangerous rascal.

They are not, like the innocent president, weeping over a probable Gerrymander, for they have mixed enough in this wicked world to know that the legislature of New York will form no exception to the universal rule for the last thirty years, and like a gambler beaten at his own game, they have learned to grin and bear it.

But they have discovered that that same legislature has the undoubted constitutional power of appointing the presidential electors, as was generally done for a long time after the adoption of the constitution, and judging New York democrats by themselves they believe they will avail themselves of this manifest constitutional advantage.

No doubt such action would merely anticipate the unbiased judgment of the great majority of the people of New York and would save untold millions to the productive interests of the country by relieving them from the hullabaloo and confusion of the presidential year.

But then, you see it would be the other fellows who would, as they say, steal the presidency this time.

Dear! dear! what can be done? Mr. President, and Messrs. Quay and Dudley, let us emigrate to Japan, or Turkey, where they have no such troubles.

HENRY T. NILES.

Toledo, Jan. 11, 1892.

WILL THERE BE ICE?

The Question Bothering the Men Engaged in the Business.

The ice men are not as gay in spirit today as a week or two ago. Prospects of a big crop of fine ice were never better until the rain began to descend, and the thermometer to ascend, yesterday afternoon.

The ice on the river was five and a half inches thick, and, had the cold weather continued, would soon have been ready to harvest. Unless mercury takes a very sudden fall the prospects of an ice crop will be knocked galley west.

"The prospects for a crop of ice are rather shaky just at present," remarked C. S. Ashley, of the Spring Lake Ice company, to a Bee. "There has been no ice put up anywhere so far and ice men are becoming considerably concerned about the state of affairs. The end of the season is drawing near, and it is time the ice houses were filled. It is reported ice is seven inches in Michigan and we will begin to cut when it reaches eight, if it ever does, though it should be ten."

STREET CARS DEMORALIZED.

Water and Cold Weather Played Havoc With Rapid Transit.

The street car system was badly demoralized last night. There was scarcely a line in the city that was running cars with semblance of regularity. The tracks were thickly coated with ice, which made it simply impossible for the electric cars to run. They became stalled, and the horse cars, though able to run, were also laid out. Between Monroe street and the Oliver house, over 25 cars were blockaded at one time, between 10 and 11 o'clock, just about the time the theaters were out. The cars run irregularly after the first fall of rain, and many people were very late at the theaters and other points of entertainment and business.

THE RIGHT KIND OF GIRL.

"A Girl Who Can Shoot" is getting to be a chestnut in our exchanges. She is heard of in every section of the country. There is not much demand for her, however, except in dime museums. What the country really needs is large quantities of girls who can shoot biscuits across the table at their hungry parents, help their mothers clean up the house and get the younger children off to school, make their own clothes, talk common sense, and who expect to get married to sober men who can support them—girls who will know how to properly manage homes of their own if they ever have them. That's the kind of shooting for the girls to learn.—Arkansaw Traveler.

BOILER EXPLOSION.

York, Pa., Jan. 12.—A defective boiler exploded at the slate quarry of J. R. Jones, near Delta, this county, yesterday. Wm. Hazlett was instantly killed and Richard Hughes was so seriously injured that his recovery is doubtful. The boiler house and adjoining buildings were demolished. The boiler was carried a distance of 150 feet.

GOVERNOR ABBETT.

His Annual Message to the Legislature.

The Financial Condition of the State Was Never Better—Corporation a Good Thing.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 12.—In his message to the legislature, Gov. Abbett says:

The financial condition of the state was never better; for the first time since 1885 the fiscal year has closed without any floating debt.

Under the liberal laws of the state many new corporations have been created, largely increasing the receipts from fees for filing certificates and the amount of tax payable by miscellanious corporations.

No new tax has been levied upon any corporation and the people continue free from the imposition of any direct state tax for governmental purposes. If the future needs of the state require further revenue, the taxes upon corporations can fairly be increased until they pay equally with individuals. In view of the excellent condition of state affairs I do not feel called upon to ask the legislature for any additional tax either corporate or individual for the ordinary expenses of the state government.

The commissioners appointed to represent the state at the world's fair report that in order to make a creditable display they must have a further appropriation in addition to the $20,000 heretofore given them by the legislature.

In this connection I call attention to the fact that the net amount of money spent by the state in the exposition at Philadelphia was over $74,000, and in view of the greater distance of Chicago from this state, the expense will naturally be greater. I am satisfied that the exposition will be a success. I feel that if New Jersey is to be represented at Chicago every reasonable step should be taken to make its exhibit and that of its citizens creditable to our state. I therefore recommend that the legislature carefully consider the report of the commission and make such further appropriation as they may deem proper.

ENCLCLOPAEDIA * BRITANNICA!

A * FAMILY * AFFAIR.

The Best Use to be made of the Long Winter Evenings Now Here.

A HAPPY HOME.

AS night draws down the curtain early and the wind goes about whistling to keep itself warm the question of how to spend best the evening hours becomes as familiar as the fireplace in every home.

"Papa, what'll we do for fun after tea?"

"Oh, John, I wish I had something nice to read."

These expressions come from the lips of children and wives almost every winter evening.

No game has yet been devised in which a whole family can take part night after night with pleasure to all. Tastes differ nowhere more than among the individual members of a family. One will want to read a novel, another history, another to study, another will like pictures, and the father of all will probably care for nothing so much as that which relates to his own business. When we say to you that there is one source from which all these tastes can be satisfied, that there is one way in which you can make every night this winter—which otherwise might be spent in profitless droning—a time of pleasure and of profit for every member of your family, we don't expect you to do more than to smile incredulously.

"Oh, that's only one of those advertisements," we know you will say.

But wait. In the ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA there is something about everybody and everything of importance that is or ever was in the world. Within the twenty-five volumes of this great work there are stories of lives that excel in interest any romance ever written; there is all about commerce, art, history, literature, agriculture, mathematics, mechanics, business, to give you ideas and information for use in your daily work; there are plenty of pictures for the baby of the family; there is a liberal education for your children who are old enough to go to school; there are stories, hints, suggestions and recipes of invaluable interest to ur wife.

There are

LIGHT IN THE SENATE.

Light thro' the Senate windows, light
 For the People's servants to see the right;
Light for their feet in the cobwebbed ways
 Of the oligarchy of other days!

Light on the plots that have served so long

Light on the schemes that went never amiss
 So long as they hurt the metropolis!

 They'll sally no more from the donjon steep

And the walls of Platt's scattered legions rise
 With vengeful vows to the smiling skies.

POISONED HER MASTER.

A Slave's Revenge for Her Cruel Treatment.

The Mahdi Paid the Penalty of His Deeds.

The Story of the Capture of Khartoum and the Slaughter of the Peopleas Told by Father Ohrwalder.

Cairo, Jan. 12.—In an interview with Father Ohrwalder, the priest who was formerly connected with the Austrian Soudan mission and who recently escaped from the Mahdists after nine years of captivity, he confirmed the report that the Mahdi was poisoned and repeated in detail the events that led to his death.

Father Ohrwalder says that after the Mahdi had tired of warfare he withdrew to Omdurman to enjoy a life of licentiousness. Among the prisoners who had fallen into the hands of the Mahdi was the daughter of a wealthy citizen of Khartoum.

This citizen had refused to accept the Mahdi as the successor of Mohammed and had opposed his scheme. Consequently after Khartoum was captured by the Mahdists his property was confiscated, all his children, except his daughter, were butchered, and his wives were sold into slavery.

The fanatical Arabs were struck by the beauty of the girl whose life they spared. They deemed that she would make a worthy addition to the harem of their leader and she was accordingly carried to the Mahdi and presented to him.

The girl, however, was not content to live a life of concubinage with the man who had been the cause of the destruction of her family. She brooded over her wrongs and finally determined to take revenge.

Like many people of her race she had considerable knowledge of poisons. She selected for the Mahdi a poison, which, while sure to produce death, was yet quite slow to bring about the desired result. The poison she placed in a cool drink intended for the Mahdi and then she gave the cup to her master.

He partook of the draught from the hands of his slave, never for a moment dreaming that she was meditating his murder.

Everything worked according to the girl's calculations. Shortly after the Mahdi had drunk his cooling drink the effects of the poison began to manifest themselves.

Arab doctors were summoned to relieve him but all their efforts were in vain. For eight days the Mahdi lingered suffering all the time the most excruciating agony before death relieved him of his pains.

In a recent interview Father Ohrwalder gave a detailed account of the terrible sufferings he and his companions had undergone during their captivity in the Soudan. In April, 1882, a Dervish force was sent by the Mahdi to attack the Austrian mission station in South Kardofan and reduce it.

The missionaries attached to the station made a gallant defense and for five months they stood out against the besiegers. At the end of that time, through the treachery of a native, the gallant band of priests and the nuns who were working with them fell into the hands of the Dervishes. The nuns were sent to the Mahdist camp at Rahad.

Upon their arrival they were nominally married and forced to live the life of Moslems. They accompanied the force of the Mahdi to Khartoum and were present at the capture of that city. After that time they lived at Omdurman, nominally free under the strictest surveillance. Father Ohrwalder and the other members of the mission were hurried to El Obid. They were asked to embrace Islamism and on refusing to do so were kept close prisoners for a long time.

In 1885 Father Ohrwalder and Father Rossignoli were transferred to Omdurman. Here they had an interview with the khalifa who gave them permission to lead a life of freedom within the city, provided they followed the same mode of life as the Arabs.

THE GAS TRUSTEES

Discuss a Machine Which Will Gather Gas From All Quarters.

The gas trustees met last evening, with all members present.

A communication from Mr. Greenwood, agent of the Holstein Pump company, was submitted. It recommended a mechanical application to help the trustees out in this, their hour of great need. It is a pump, with such mighty suctional power as to pull the gas from the internals of the earth for acres around, regardless of lease, boundary lines or who owns the territory. This pump alone would cost $22,000, with $1,800 for a foundation, $300 to pay for construction, a building $1,000, or a total of $25,100.

Dr. Jones wanted to refer the matter to a committee for investigation.

New Beet Sugar Factory.

The prospects for Findlay securing the proposed new beet sugar factory and refinery are excellent. It has been demonstrated beyond a doubt the beets can be cultivated here, and the farmers in mass convention entered into a contract to furnish the required number of acres. The new industry will give employment to a large force of workmen, and be the means of circulating a large amount of money among the farmers.

Successfully Celebrated.

Rev. R. A. Hollyday and wife had the pleasure of celebrating their golden wedding last evening at their pleasant home in this city, surrounded by their children and grandchildren and about 300 invited friends. STOLE AN EXPRESS WAGON.

Chicago Takes the Cake for Queer Thieving.

Somebody Will Come Along and Abduct the Public Building One of These Fine Days.

Chicago, Jan. 12.—An express wagon belonging to the United States Express company was quietly and very coolly taken possession of and driven off by a slightly built young man, wearing a gray overcoat and a derby hat, about 6 o'clock lst night.

Scores of people saw the man commit the daring theft, but his manner gave no intimation that he was other than he pretended to be—one of the drivers of the company.

William Maloney, the regularly employed driver, was finishing up his rounds for the day among the wholesale tailoring establishments on Market street.

He stopped at the corner of Van Buren to get a parcel. His "watch boy," Willie Edson, sat on the box of the wagon while Maloney collected the packages. Willie became cold and left his perch to kick his heels against the store door of Mason & Judson's wholesale house.

The thief, who has not yet been caught, leaped nimbly into Willie's seat and drove away. When he got out of sight little Willie ceased kicking his heels and Maloney started for the office.

All the police stations were notified to "look out for a one-horse United States express wagon, stop all of them and make rigid inquiry before you allow them to pass."

This was done, and at 10 o'clock the horse and wagon and four pigeons in a coop were found in an alley off Eighteenth street, near Canal street, by Sergeant Laughran, of Canalport avenue station.

The loss by the larceny is not more than $200.

AVAUNT THERE!

Col. Joe Bonner Loses His Sword in the First Scrimmage.

Whose got Col. Bonner's sword? That's the question.

The Cleveland Leader, good republican authority, has the following paragraph in this morning's issue relative to a calamity which befell Col. Bonner in the first engagement:

Amusing incidents occurred without number. The members of the governor's staff, many of them for the first time clad in military toggery, were often the subject of good-natured badinage. Colonel Bonner, of Toledo, had a fine sword with a gold-mounted hilt when he started for the stage upon which the inaugural ceremonies were held. Before he reached the stage it was jerked from its scabbard and that is the last the colonel has seen or heard of it. Its disappearance was wholly unknown to him.

That Awful Disease.

Petersburg, Ind., Aug. 8, 1890.

Dr. Bergen, City:

Dear Sir—I have been a victim to that awful disease known as asthma, all my life, and very often I would be down with it—not able to be out of the house—and have tried everything I could hear of, but they never did me much if any good. I was finally persuaded to try your cure. So, after taking a few bottles of it, I was entirely free from asthma and have not had any since and don't feel that I ever will. I always keep a bottle on hand, but don't think I will ever have occasion to use it. I can cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers of asthma.

HAVE YOU THE GRIPPE?

Many People Have It and Do No Know It.—How to Recognize the Symptoms and How to Treat Them.

Hundreds of people have the Grippe who do not know it. Not necessarily the final stages, but the first stages. They feel pains in the head, and a bad taste in the mouth, get tired and despondent, have chilly sensations, limbs and muscles ache. In some cases these things are overlooked. In most cases perhaps they are considered simply a slight cold. In nearly every case they indicate the coming of Grippe.

There is but one thing to do when these symptoms appear, and that is to take prompt and vigorous measures, to fortify nature to repel the enemy. A little well directed effort at just the right time will accomplish very much more than labored efforts afterwards. There is but one thing to be done, and that is to use a pure stimulant, something that will promptly arrest, and in no way injure, something endorsed by scientists, recommended by physicians, and popular because so efficient—Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. Two years ago, and last year when the Grippe was raging, this was the standard remedy used, and recommended by the profession. It did more to prevent the Grippe than all other known or recommended remedies. It preserved many people in health who would otherwise have been grievously sick, perhaps even worse. It is as efficient to-day as ever. It should be borne in mind that other so-called whiskies may not be so efficient, and if any dealer asserts that such whiskies are the same, distrust him at once. There is but one medicinal whiskey and that is Duffy's Pure Malt.

THE ALDERMEN

Receive a Report on Deputy Police Clerk Tanner.

Dredging Legislation Killed—Ordinance to Divide the Sixth Ward—Additional Business.

All the members of the board of aldermen were present at the meeting last evening, and the business was transacted with but little discussion.

Mr. Hartford introduced an ordinance to divide the Sixth ward into three wards. This was referred to the committee on by-laws and ordinances without debate.

A resolution was adopted for an artesian well on the southeasterly corner of Maumee and Segur avenues.

A resolution to advertise the application for an extension of the time of the street railway franchise on Broadway, granted to H. S. Walbridge and others, was adopted. This is the proposed electric railway to Maumee.

Several assessment abatements approved by the judiciary committee were approved.

An ordinance to pave Scottwood avenue was referred back to the committee on motion of Mr. Huberich.

Resolutions were adopted to improve Yondota street and Scottwood avenue.

Several resolutions for new sidewalks were adopted.

Resolutions for a sewer in Ametra street and for a sewer in St. Louis street were adopted.

The application and bond of Andrew Keller as a sewer builder was approved.

The report of the ways and means committee was read and filed, and a resolution was adopted directing the harbormaster to repair St. Clair street bridge at a cost not to exceed $400.

Auditor Walker's reply to the charges of John R. Miller was read and placed on file.

A protest from H. P. Platt against the assessment for the paving of Front street from Bridge street to the Port Clinton turnpike was presented and referred.

The ordinance to vacate a small strip on one side of Speilbusch avenue caused considerable discussion.

Mr. Potter wanted the line of Michigan street continued straight into Speilbusch avenue, and finally the matter was referred to the city engineer.

The Tanner Case.

The report of the board of revision on the investigation of charges against S. F. Tanner, deputy police clerk, was presented to the board.

After reciting the charges made by Mr. Fogarty, which are familiar to Bee readers, the board makes its finding as follows.

We immediately enter upon an investigation of the facts complained of, and after the examination of sundry and divers witnesses, submit the following report:

We immediately entered upon an inves- 1891, one John Mahoney was arrested by a special policeman and brought to the police court of the city of Toledo on a charge of petit larceny; that upon the advice and consent of the prosecuting attorney of said court the said case was settled upon the payment of costs, which costs were taxed and collected by Samuel F. Tanner, the deputy clerk of said court, in the sum of $3.20.

We therefore find the irregularities upon the part of said Samuel F. Tanner, deputy clerk: First—Said Tanner, being then in sole charge of the clerk,s office the clerk of said court being absent, failed and neglected to enter said case or make any record thereof upon any of the dockets or journals of said court.

Second, That said deputy clerk failed and neglected to turn over to the proper officer the said cost so collected by him.

Third, That the said Samuel F. Tanner deputy clerk, failed and neglected to enter said case upon the monthly report prepared by him for the clerk to certify to the auditor of Lucas county.

V. J. EMMICK.
W. H. A. READ.
P. HASSENZAHL, Jr.,
Board of Revision.

Toledo, O., Jan. 9, 1892.

The report contained no recommendation, but the report finds the charges to be true as alleged and leaves the case with the council. The report of the board of revision was referred to the board of council.

When the business from the board of councilmen was taken up the resolution asking the legislature to grant permission to the city of Toledo to issue bonds for the purpose of dredging the harbor, brought out some discussion. The aldermen did not seem to favor the idea, and when they had finished talking voted down the rresolution, 7 to 2.

The resolution directing the clerk to advertise for proposals for collecting garbage was laid over for two weeks.

Other business from the lower board was adopted.

DOES PROTECTION PROTECT?

Certainly, in one instance it does. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the great protection against the dangers of impure blood, and it will cure or prevent all diseases of this class. It has well won its name of the best blood purifier.

PARTNERSHIP DISSOLVED.

Two Joes Made an Agreement Which Proved Expensive.

Two of Toledo's leading merchant tailors, both bearing the given name of Joe, were talking the thing over at the first of the year and came to the unanimous conclusion that they must give up something or other just to keep in line with the rest of humanity that was turning over a new page.

They thought it all over, but couldn't locate on anything to give up. The fact was they had no bad habits, and they didn't like the idea of sacrificing any of their good ones, and so they talked and talked and finally, in lieu of something better, agreed to get home earlier evenings to please their families.

A reasonable hour for turning in was set with the stipulation that every time they overstepped the rule they were to give their wives $5.

Things went on swimmingly until a day or so ago, when one of the Joes met the other with "Look here, Joe, I've been turning this over in my mind, and I think maybe we were a little rash."

"Why, what's the matter; don't it work all right?"

"Yes, it works all right, and that's what's the matter; it's making me a poor man."

The partnership was dissolved.

Wheat Quotations for the Day—Price Current for Produce and Other Articles

The Markets.

London wheat market at opening, depressed; corn downward tendency. English country markets quiet and French rather easier. Weather in England, hard frost, Liverpool wheat quotations are one penny per 100 pounds lower, and opening steady at decline. Corn strong.

The receipts of wheat at seven principal western points to-day are 283,354 bu, compared with 212,122 bu on the same day last year.

Shipments of wheat from India last week equaled 380,000 bu. Previous week 840,000 bu. From April 1, the commencement of the crop year, to January 9, 46,638,000 bu, compared with 22,230,000 bu in the corresponding period in 1890-91.

The imports into the United Kingdom for the week were 2,960,000 bu of wheat and 214,000 bbls of flour, equal to 3,923,000 bu of wheat, and 856,000 bu of corn

The quantity of flour and wheat on ocean passage increased last week 600,000 bus, being an increase to the United Kingdom of 904,000 bu and a decrease to the continent of 304,000 bu. Corn increased 1,720,000 bu, being an increase of 872,000 bu to the United Kingdom and 848,000 bu to the continent.

Our table herein of available wheat and corn shows an increase of 536,179 bu wheat, and an increase of 2,558,270 bu corn.

The directors of this exchange have agreed to join the National Board of Trade, and have appointed its secretary to represent them at its next session.

The receipts of wheat to-day at Minneapolis and Duluth are only 139,806 bu, and from five other principal western points 143,548 bu, both very light and decreased.

The export clearances yesterday at two Atlantic ports were: Wheat, 98,682 bu, and flour to an agregate—without Boston—of 300,000 bu. The exports of corn were 218,741 bu, and oats, 19,459 bu.

English markets as reported herein are dull and lower for wheat. London weak on corn, and Liverpool strong.

The extract from the London Mark Lane Express printed herein says the stock of breadstuffs in 12 leading British ports January 1, 1892, was 16,000,000 bu of wheat and 550,000 sacks of flour, compared with 11,200,000 bu of wheat and 630,000 sacks of flour January 1, 1891. Considering the excess in flour is less than 4,800,000 bu of wheat, so enormous an increase in stock as to pale the faces of English dealers? We do not credit it, but we do credit the fact that a mountain has been constructed out of limited material for its basis. Of course English buyers have made the most of it, and American bears, like parrots, have echoed it in their efforts to depress prices, and have made it appear as though the very air was full of wheat in all importing countries. This condition of things is discouraging to us and to prices, but we believe a time will come, a resurrection day, and not long hence, when these fierce bears will become very weak and harmless lambs.

The ocean stock destined to the continent is again decreased last week 304,000 bu. It is now 4,760,000 more than January 13, 1891, which is a singularly limited increase under the comparative conditions. It is in order now for some authority to prick the bubble of the enormous—it is called daily—accumulations on the continent.

The wheat markets continue to decline, day by day. It is like the newly invented cork leg, which escaped from its inventor and started on a run and and could not be stopped. The worst thought about it is that America is making prices for the world's markets, and as we decline, so do they. Opennig prices for wheat were lower, and the decline was accelerated as the hours went by. There appears no manifestation of confidence by the friends of wheat—no good Samaritan to bind up its wounds.

Corn is also a little lower, but seems to stand its hand at home and abroad. Liverpool is quoted strong. Even with an increase on ocean passage of 1,720,000 bu, divided about equally between the United Kingdom and the continent.

Liverpool is quoted as closing rather easier for wheat.

Paris, Antwerp and Berlin are also quoted closing lower.

In New York January and May wheat closed 1 3-8 lower. January and May corn 1-4 lower. January oats 1-8 lower.

In Chicago, May wheat closed 1 1-8c lower. January corn 1-4c and May 1-8c lower. January oats unchanged.

In Toledo there has been a large increase in the trading in wheat. May was the future dealt in. It has been a day of liquidation. The longs and shorts have been coming together. Prices at opening were about 3-4c lower at 94 3-4c, advancing to 96 1-8c, again declining and closing at 95c bid, the latest price of the day and at a loss of 1 1-2c bu.

Cash wheat was in good demand at the decline in prices. No. 3 soft sold early at 91c, a decline of 1-2c. About 30,000 bu. were sold at $90 1-2c, but the market closed at 90c, a loss of 1 1-2c; No. 3 soft at 87 1-2c; No other grades dealt in.

Corn—Our quotations show some irregularity. We quote No. 2 offered at 42c; No. 3 about 40c; No. 4 about 38c. Oats—No 2 for May at 33c. Rye—No. 2 about 88c. Dressed hogs, $4 75 to $4 90. Clover seed—The dealings to-day were light at about previous prices. Prime for cash at $5 55; January, $5 55; March, $5 60; No. 2, $5 35.

Markets by Telegraph.

London, Jan. 12.—1 p. m.—Wheat cargoes off coast at opening, weaker; maize, nothing offering. Wheat on passage and for shipment depressed; maize downward tendency. Red winter wheat for prompt shipment, 480 lbs, American terms, 39s 6d. Red winter wheat for present and following month, 480 lbs, American terms, 39s 6d. No. 1 Cala. wheat just shipped or promptly to be shipped. 500 lbs, California terms, 42s; No. 1 Cala. wheat nearly due, 500 lbs, California terms, 42s. English country markets quiet, French rather easier. Hard frost.

Liverpool, Jan. 12.—1 p. m.—Wheat market quiet, demand poor, holders offer moderately. American mixed corn strong, demand fair. No. 2 spring wheat (U. S. seaboard inspection 8s@8s 1-2d. SOMETHING IN A TUB.

A Huron Street Mystery Cleared Up

By a Committee Appointed by a Group of Inquisitive Citizens.

A man and a woman in a back yard on Huron street, near Oak, were bending over an ordinary wash tub the other day, and from their movements and the vapor rising from the steaming depths in which their arms were buried, a passer-by would have gathered that they were, by a clever family arrangement, engaged in turning out the weekly wash.

They were not, however, out just what they were doing was a source of great mystery to the knot of idlers who watched the proceedings from the sidewalk.

"It's coming all right," said the man.

"Yes; I guess he'll come out in good shape," replied his helper.

"He'll come out in good shape!" ejaculated the committee on the sidewalk. "Well, if it's a he that they're rolling, pounding and kneading in that tub of hot water we don't think he'll come out in any very desirable shape."

Excitement grew fiercer and fiercer among the knot on the sidewalk, and at last, after a serious consultation, a committee of one was appointed to go over in the yard and investigate matters.

He neared the steaming tub with all sorts of horrible things revolving in his mind. The two workers who were so zealouly pounding and kneading the unfortunate "him" kept at their work without looking up.

At last the committee of one drew near enough to look into the tub, and to his amazement saw coiled therein a huge snake at least 12 feet long.

"What are we doing?" answered the man of the tub to the query: "why, we're helping this python to shed his skin. You see he's not used to the northern winters and has been dormant for some time. We were afraid he wouldn't pull through till spring. It's time he was shedding his skin, but as he was too weak to do so we're helping him. This tub contains warm water and milk, and with rubbing and peeling we've got his coat almost off. Very few museum snakes live through the cold weather, and us museum people have to stock up again in the spring at considerable expense. This fellow weighs 97 pounds. He's a fine specimen, and we don't want to lose him."

The committee crawled back over the fence and reported, while the man and woman lifted his snakeship from the tub and placed him, in the warm cloths, in a long box in company with a rabbit.

The crowd on the sidewalk wanted the committee to go back and see if he ate the rabbit, but the committee had seen enough.

All miserable sufferers with dyspepsia are cured by Simmons Liver Regulator.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Splendid Production of Poor Jonathan Last Night.

Frohman's Company in Men and Women To-Night and To-Morrow—The Danger Signal—Other Attractions.

Mulloecker's delightful comedy opera, Poor Jonathan, was presented at Wheeler's last night to a large and appreciative audience and the performance was an exceedingly good one throughout. The opera is exceedingly novel from the fact that it is entirely American, the plot being laid in New York and nearly all the characters being typical Americans of the present day.

There is an entire absence of the picturesque costuming usually considered necessary to comic opera and the only thing approaching a ballet or Amazon march is an excellent cadet drill by the girls of the chorus, representing a West Point military company.

The plot deals with the troubles of an American millionaire, Rubygold, who finally turns his wealth over to his cook, Jonathan Tripp, who immediately proceeds to "cut a swath."

The music is pleasing and catchy and the piece is well put on.

Myra Mirrelli, who sang the leading role of Harriet, displayed an exceedingly fine voice and stage presence and carried the part very cleverly, notwithstanding the fact that she has been playing it only since last Saturday, in place of Miss Rita Selby, who was obliged to leave the company on account of illness.

Fanny D. Hall as Molly, J. Aldrich Libby as Rubygold, and A. W. F. McCollin, always a Toledo favorite, as Poor Jonathan, were especially good, and George M. Herbert as Tobias Quickly, introduced some clever comedy acting. The other parts were well taken and the company is strong throughout.

Men and Women.

One of the chief events of the dramatic season at Wheeler's will be the production of DeMille and Belasco's latest successful play, Men and Women, to-night and to-morrow night. The piece will be presented by Charles Frohman's company, of New York. It has already enjoyed a run of 250 nights in New York and 50 nights in Chicago, and will be seen again in both of these cities before the close of the season. The play in which the company will make its initial bow here is Men and Women, by DeMille and Belasco, authors of The Charity Ball, The Wife, Lord Chumley, and other well known pieces. Aside from its heart story, which is the supreme element in every successful drama, there is introduced a vividly powerful picture of the inside workings of the bank—speculation, defalcation, suicide and disaster which, is averted only at the last moment—all the circumstances of the situation being worked up to a degree of absorbing interest.

The plot of the play, in brief, is that of a young bank cashier, who misappropriates securities belonging to the bank, and in a reckless endeavor to become speedily wealthy, loses everything in speculation. The assistant cashier is accused, and the crime is fastened upon him by circumstantial evidence. The criminal cashier watches the accusation of his assistant before the bank directors and even testifies against him. Not until his affianced wife informs him that she knows the facts, does the guilty cashier lift his voice and put on the hand-cuffs intended for another.

For the Week.

The attractions for this week at the theaters are especially good, and Toledo people are to be congratulated upon the treat in store. Besides those mentioned above, Hoyt's Midnight Bell will be presented at Wheeler's, Thursday night, and on Friday and Saturday nights the Askin-Rork Opera company will present the Tar and Tartar, with the original cast.

"A Danger Signal" is on the boards at the People's this week. It is an excellent portrayal of the great west in the winter time, with blizzards, snow drifts and general freeze up. The mechanical effects are first-class, scenery above the average, and on the whole the attraction is worthy of big patronage.

There are many forms of nervous debility in men that yield to the use of Carter's Iron Pills. Those who are troubled with nervous weakness, night sweats, etc., should try them.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

The Toledo & Ohio Central is handling an average of 300 cars of coal from the mines daily.

A small fire in E. A. Paine's candy store, 607 Cherry street, caused about $20 damage last evening.

Nicholas Gross is in the toils for neglecting his children and will be tried in police court to-morrow.

Yesterday the W. & L. E. took about 500 people from Norwalk and Massillon on a special to Columbus.

August Kurtz, of 125 Erie street, was fined $5 and costs in police court this morning for disturbance.

Mrs. A. R. Ayres has taken out a building permit for a $6,000 frame dwelling on Robinwood avenue.

FRANK FARLOW ARRESTED.

A Prominent Man Charged with Forgery.

Warrants Sworn Out by His Father and Grandfather—A Social Sensation of Large Proportions.

Defiance, Jan. 12.—(Special)—Frank L. Farlow, a well known and heretofore popular young attorney of Hicksville, was arrested in this city yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Eiser, on a charge of forgery.

The affidavit was sworn out by his father, Amos Farlow, and Benjamin Farlow, his grandfather, in which they charge the young man with forgery of their names to notes aggregating about $4,000.

About $2,450 of these notes are held by innocent purchasers in Defiance.

Upon being arraigned before Squire Orcutt, Farlow pleaded not guilty, but his hearing was continued until January 15, and in default of bail he was placed in jail, where he still remains.

Besides the alleged forgeries there are ugly rumors of embezzlement against Farlow in his professional career as loan and collecting agent at Hicksville.

His arrest has created quite an excitement for he has been favorably known here all his life and was for many years prominent in business and social circles.

Many friends at first didn't believe the charges against him, but the latest developments have greatly shaken their faith in his innocence.

His relatives, who caused his arrest, are among the substantial men of Defiance county.

Living near the Tennessee city of Memphis are seven sisters, whose names rhyme beautifully, but do not scan. The names are Nancy Emeline, Lucinda Caroline, Mary Hazeltine, Jane Palestine, Lulu Paradine, Virgie Valentine and Maudie Anna Adeline.

Which—Man or Shirt?

Has the man grown, or has the flannel shrunk? Usually, the shirt is to blame. No, not that, either—but the way it's washed.

Flannels ought to be washed with Pearline. If you're buying new ones, start right. Have them washed only with Pearline (direction on every package) and they won't shrink. As for the old ones, Pearline can't make them any larger, but begin with it at once and it will keep them from growing smaller. It will keep them from the wear and tear of the washboard, too.

Danger — As one wash is sufficient to ruin flannels, great care should be exercised as to the use of the many imitations which are being offered by unscrupulous grocers or peddlers. Pearline is never peddled. 314 JAMES PYLE, N. Y.
